Welcome to seine river first nation

Seine River First Nation is located in Northwestern Ontario on Wild Potato Lake.

Boozhoo ndinawemaaganag ! Welcome to our beautiful community on the web. We are very pleased to welcome you to the re-launch of our website and hope that by stopping by to visit us here, you feel at home and welcome in our community.

Our Council in Seine River First Nation has had a long history of good leadership and good governance that has always and will always work for the benefit of the members of Seine River First Nation. Over the years many Seine River First Nation members have come together to work for the success' for Seine River First Nation. It is Seine River First Nation's connection to our culture as Anishnaabe that form the root of who we are and how we walk in this world and how we will continue to prepare for the future of our community and ensure prosperity for the generations of community members that will come after us.

The First Nations Financial Transparency Act requires that 581 First Nations, defined as an Indian band under the Indian Act, make their audited consolidated financial statements and a Schedule of Remuneration and Expenses of chief and council available to their members as well as publish it on a website.

The SRFN financial documents are available upon request. They include the following:

- 2019 Consolidated Financial Statements
- 2019 Schedules of Revenue and Expenses by Program
- 2019 Ontario First Nations Limited Partnerships
- 2019 Schedules of Remuneration and Expenses (Chief and Councillors)
